The level crossing obstacle detection system detects all objects in the controlled area of a level crossing, in order to prevent a train colliding with an object such as a vehicle or people on the crossing.
The level crossing obstacle detection system detects all objects in the controlled area of a level crossing, in order to prevent a train colliding with an object such as a vehicle or people on the crossing.